The Audubon Society of Greater Denver and the Sierra Club
Present

Getting Green Laws

February 24, 2018
First Plymouth Congregational Church

Agenda

8:00 AM Registration and Continental Breakfast Begin

8:30 AM Welcome to Getting Green Laws

8:40 AM Overview of environmental bills and issues of the 2016 Legislative Session
Jen Boulton, Audubon Colorado Legislative Liaison
Sol Malick, Sierra Club lobbyist, or SC Board Member

10:00 AM Break

10:15 AM Legislative Issues Panel

Robert Walters, Colorado Parks and Wildlife: What are Aquatic Nuisance Species and why do we worry about them?
Dr. Mark Squillace, University of Colorado Law School: The Past, Present and Future of our Public Lands
Mike Silverstein, Colorado Dept.of Public Health and Environment: State initiatives in the face of federal inaction on Climate Change

11:40 AM Question and Answer

12:00 PM Lunch (provided by Sierra Club and Audubon volunteers)

12:05 - 1:25 PM Roundtable Discussion with Legislators
Rep. Chris Hansen, HD 6, on renewable energy storage
Invited: Reps. Chris Kennedy, Faith Winter, and Jeff Bridges
Senators Kevin Priola, Jim Smallwood, and Dan Kagan

1:25 PM Door prizes/ Wrap Up/ Adjourn

Special thanks to our Sierra Club and Audubon volunteers, and members of the General Assembly.
We gratefully acknowledge the generosity of Ecoproducts for their donation to the Forum.

Website for finding your representatives: http://leg.colorado.gov/find-my-legislator
Or (if you know their name): http://leg.colorado.gov/legislators

More information: www.coloradosierraclub.org, www.denveraudubon.org

Decisions are made by those who show up!